N.M. Stat. Ann. 30-12-1(C) and (E)(3)

ARTICLE 1

General Provisions

CHAPTER 30

Criminal Offenses

30-12-1. Interference with communications; exception.

Interference with communications consists of knowingly and without lawful authority:

C. reading, interrupting, taking or copying any message, communication or report intended for another by telegraph or telephone without the consent of a sender or intended recipient thereof;

E. using any apparatus to do or cause to be done any of the acts hereinbefore mentioned or to aid, agree with, comply or conspire with any person to do or permit or cause to be done any of the acts hereinbefore mentioned.

Whoever commits interference with communications is guilty of a misdemeanor, unless such interference with communications is done:

(3) by a person acting under color of law in the investigation of a crime, where such person is a party to the communication, or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to such interception, monitoring or recording of such communication.
